

Symposium 15 : Russian mathematics and mathematicians in the aftermath of the 1917
Revolutions (responsables : Laurent Mazliak & Thomas Perfettini)

SALLE – FORUM 113.

mercredi 19 avril 16h30-18h30 KARP, FONTANON, PERFETTINI, BLUM, MAZLIAK, VERBURGT

1. Alexander KARP – 16h30

Dreams and Reality: assessment in mathematics in 1918-1931

2. Claudine FONTANON – 16h50

Dimitri Riabouchinski ou l'heureux exil d'un mathématicien russe à Paris (1917-1962)

3. Thomas PERFETTINI – 17h10

Mathematics and mathematicians in the Russian emigration in Paris

4. Alain BLUM – 17h30

Statistics and Octobre Revolution - toward a socialist statistics?

5. Laurent MAZLIAK– 17h50

The beginnings of the Soviet encyclopedia. Utopia and misery of mathematics in the political turmoils of the 1920s.

6. Lukas VERBURGT– 18h10

Modern probability in Soviet Russia: the case of A. Ya. Khinchin